To CCBC Members & Friends:

Once again this year, CCBC and CCPIT are collaborating on the Chinese Enterprises Outbound Investment Conference. This is a two-day conference for Chinese firms interested in investing outside China. Many CCBC members and Canadian communities are excited about the opportunity to capture the economic benefit from this wave of Chinese capital seeking a home. Last year's program was very successful. Nearly 600 companies attended the two-day seminar, with 150 coming to the Canada-focused half-day session within it.

This year we will again hold the half-day Invest in Canada seminar, on the afternoon of April 22, 2008, at the Great Wall Sheraton Hotel in Beijing. Our goal is to get more specific about investment in Canada, addressing some of the questions we've been hearing over the last year and presenting some specific projects or sector opportunities. CCPIT plans to invite Chinese companies in the mining and agricultural sectors, with a secondary focus on biotech and ICT.

Among the topics we plan to address during the afternoon Invest in Canada session are:
- Canadian tax policy
- Clarification of Canada's investment policy
- Models for investment, particularly "immigration + investment" and some examples of how companies are doing this

The full draft agenda for the two-day CCPIT conference includes:

April 22:
- General session in a.m.,
- Invest in Canada and Invest in London sessions in p.m..
- Welcoming dinner in evening.
April 23:
- Sectoral sessions for agriculture and service outsourcing in a.m.
- Sector session for mining and Invest in Dusseldorf (tbc) session in p.m.

As with last year, there are up to six sponsorship opportunities available for the Invest in Canada seminar (2-3 companies in non-competing sectors, and 2-3 government organizations). Sponsorships include a 20-minute speaking opportunity, and we will work to coordinate sponsor speeches to ensure that the desired topics are covered. Sponsorship is C$6,000 per company or organization and includes the following benefits.

1. One speaker's presentation at the seminar for 20 minutes;
2. Sponsor's name and logo featured on seminar backdrop and Conference Guide;
3. One display table at the coffee break area for marketing materials;
4. One A4-sized page(non-cover) of marketing material included in the Directory for Service Providers for Chinese Enterprises to Go Global (to published by the CCPIT Economic Information Department);
5. Two complimentary seminar registrations including one speaker as VIP;
6. One VIP seat with sponsor's logo and VIP's name on the table card at opening ceremony
7. One VIP seat at the No.2 table of the welcoming banquet on the evening of April 22;
8. One table(10 persons) at the welcoming banquet reserved for the sponsor;
9. One joint interview for seminar representatives with major Chinese media;
10. Conference photos, media reports and name list of participants.

If you are interesting in attending or sponsoring the event, see the attached registration form for various attendance, display, and sponsorship options. We expect space to sell out quickly, so don't delay!
